April 19

Documentary: A Class Apart

Time: 7:30 p.m. Location: TBA

Description: From a small-town Texas murder emerged a landmark civil rights case. The little-known story of the Mexican American lawyers who took Hernandez v. Texas to the Supreme Court, challenging Jim Crow-style discrimination.

A Class Apart from the award-winning producers Carlos Sandoval (Farmingville), and Peter Miller (Sacco and Vanzetti, The Internationale). The one-hour film dramatically interweaves the story of its central characters— activists and lawyers, returning veterans and ordinary citizens, murderer, and victim — within the broader story of a civil rights movement that is still very much alive today.

Film: A Day without a Mexican

Time: 7:30 p.m. Location: 180 Hagerty Hall, 1775 College Rd.

Description: Second film in the SP 09 Latin American Film Series, this mockumentary by Sergio Arau created a stir before it was even released with promotional billboards that read, "On May 14th, there will be no Mexicans in California." Those who objected did not know that Arau had directed a funny, yet biting critique that examines the social, political and economic disasters that would occur if California-based Mexicans, essentially a third of the state's population and the world's largest growing consumer market, were to suddenly disappear. Stars Yareli Arizmendi, John Getz, Maureen Flannigan, and Muse Watson. Sergio Arau, USA/ Mexico, 2004, 100' <http://clas.osu.edu/filmSeries.php>
